About this boat

This is a 101-foot Leopard Sport yacht based in Miami, running Biscayne Bay and the surrounding barrier islands with a captain and crew on board. Below deck there are four staterooms — a king suite, a queen stateroom, and two full staterooms with a Pullman berth — sleeping up to nine guests overnight across four full bathrooms. The layout is comfortable for extended trips without guests feeling on top of each other. On the aft deck there's a teak dining table and chairs for eight, a full bar with stools, and a BBQ grill. Off the swim platform, a floating mat and inflatable dock give guests somewhere to hang in the water when anchored. The boat moves quickly for its size, which means more ground covered between...
