About this boat

When Hallberg-Rassy launched the HR342 in 2005, the model was very well received by both the press and owners. Here, the shipyard managed to combine the well-known Hallberg-Rassy feel with a more modern hull, greater sailing pleasure and more light and spaciousness than many of the previous models. The result was a boat that is described by many as one of the most successful models in its size class – large enough for long-distance sailing and comfortable family life on board, while providing a more lively and responsive sailing experience than the traditional heavier center cockpit models. This is a boat that works just as well for archipelago trips along the Norwegian coast as for long stretches of ocean. The...
