About this boat

This spacious sailing catamaran offers a relaxed way to see Lisbon from the water. At 50 feet, there's room for up to 18 guests to spread out and enjoy the ride without feeling crowded. The boat departs from Belém Tower, one of the city's most iconic landmarks, and heads out onto the calm waters of the Tagus River. The cruise is completely private — it's just your group aboard with a captain who knows the river well. You'll sail past the famous Cristo Rei monument that towers over the south bank, and from the water you'll see the historic Alfama district climbing the hillside above the river. The two-hour duration gives you time to settle in, take in the views, and really enjoy being on the water without feelin...
