About this boat

Cruise Fort Lauderdale's legendary waterways on a 60' luxury yacht that nails the balance: breezy upper-deck seating for skyline views, an AC salon when you need a break, and a generous swim platform for unhurried water time. It's polished without being precious—ideal for couples, families, or hosting clients who appreciate the details. This is what most people picture when they imagine a "yacht experience"—the classic yacht silhouette, teak decks, wraparound windows, and that feeling of understated elegance. It's large enough to feel significant, but not so massive that it becomes intimidating. Whether you're celebrating a 25th anniversary or hosting out-of-town clients, this boat strikes the right tone: refin...
