About this boat

Skrúður was built in 1988 and became part of the Elding fleet in 2012, where it is used for various private tours and occasionally operates as the ferry to Viðey island. Designed for versatility and comfort, Skróður is well equipped for small group whale watching, sea angling, and other ocean adventures. It features two outdoor viewing platforms and a spacious indoor saloon with ample seating, providing a comfortable and immersive experience. With its stability and excellent facilities, Skróður is an ideal choice for medium sized groups seeking an exciting and unforgettable journey at sea.
