About this boat

A day charter aboard the Absolute 25 in Athens provides a straightforward way to spend time on the water with a private group and an included captain. The route begins from Athens, giving guests access to nearby coastal stretches and open water areas without needing to manage navigation or operations. The setup is arranged for groups who want to stay together throughout the day in a single space. Time on board is typically unstructured, with guests moving between shaded and open areas while the vessel remains anchored or cruising along the coastline. The atmosphere is centered on shared time outdoors with basic comforts available throughout the trip. Boat Details: - Absolute 25 vessel - Departure from Athens, G...
