About this boat

The sail yacht AELLO is a classic yacht of a bygone era with a rich history. When Antonios Benakis moved to Greece permanently, he made his historic return voyage from Alexandria onboard Aello. After many years of sailing on the Mediterranean Sea, Aello was eventually bought by a Baron and Admiral of the British Empire who began a lengthy voyage around the world that spanned over many years. Sail yacht Aello was sold after the World War II and was subsequently abandoned in a mud-berth in England where she lay for nearly four decades. The mud where she rested on had the fortunate characteristic of preserving her hull. In 1985 Aello's was re discovered by New Zealander Cameron Chisholm who acquired her and undert...
