About this boat

The Alaskan 70 is a 21.34m semi-displacement motor yacht built by Trans World in 2011. With a cruising speed of 17knots and an engine bay that's acoustically insulated, lined with sound absorbing material; the Alaskan 70 gets to where you want in both speed and comfort. The interior is teak veneer panel/vinyl coverings on bulkhead with a granite countertop in the galley and heads w/ white undermount sink.
