About this boat

The Alubat Ovni 395 is a proven bluewater cruiser that blends rugged aluminium construction with refined French design by Philippe Briand. Built in 2005 by Chantier Alubat, this yacht is designed for sailors who value safety, autonomy, and true offshore capability. Her insulated aluminium hull provides excellent durability and comfort in all climates, while the powerful Volvo Penta D2-55 engine ensures reliable motoring when needed. With a versatile sail plan including multiple headsails, gennakers, and a fully battened mainsail, she is equally at home on long ocean passages or coastal cruising. This particular vessel is exceptionally well-equipped for extended voyages, featuring a comprehensive Raymarine navig...
