About this boat

Rarely does a yacht embody history with such timeless grace as Desirée. Commissioned for the Imperial House of Hohenzollern and launched in 1913 by the legendary Anker & Jensen yard, she emerged as an immediate icon. Conceived as a 12-Metre Class yacht "Desirée" unites aristocratic elegance with the pure, uncompromising spirit of racing. From her distinguished royal origins to her celebrated years in Italy, today she represents a rare opportunity to acquire a yacht of genuine historical significance, combining timeless design, proven pedigree and distinctive presence. Giovanni Spagnuolo at De Valk Rome is your go-to contact for any questions. Feel free to give us a call. We provide only a selection of key in...
