About this boat

Aquador 23 WA 2011 — An Exceptional Pocket Cruiser Aquador has long had a reputation for building boats that thrive in Nordic conditions and the 23 WA is perhaps their finest expression of that philosophy. Båtnytt, a renowned Swedish boating magazine, tested her in rough weather off Marstrand and confirmed the reputation is well deserved, calling her an "exclusive pocket cruiser." British broker Ancasta put it simply: "a big boat in small shoes." This particular example takes it a step further. Fitted with a Volvo Penta D4 — 260 hp on a DPH drive, she carries the most powerful engine ever offered in this model. Paired with her deep V-hull, the result is a boat that handles confidently in any conditions while de...
