About this boat

New Master is a 44.45-metre tri-deck displacement yacht built by Baglietto in 2001. Constructed with a steel hull and aluminium superstructure, New Master has remained under single private ownership since launch and has never entered the charter market. Over the past six years, New Master has undergone substantial technical and cosmetic updates. At the same time, New Master offers clear potential for an interior refit. Concept visuals illustrate how a new owner could reinterpret the interior spaces and bring a new atmosphere on board. New Master is now looking for her new Master — an owner ready to give the yacht a new chapter. Her exterior lines were drawn by Vincenzo Ruggiero, with outdoor areas arranged acro...
