About this boat

The Bavaria Cruiser 33 (2013) is a true gem among compact sailing yachts — small enough for easy handling, yet spacious enough to deliver the full cruising experience. Perfect for couples or small families who want a reliable and comfortable yacht without unnecessary complexity. At first glance, the design impresses with clean lines and balanced proportions. In the cockpit, everything is within reach — winches, lines, and instruments are positioned for effortless sailing, even short-handed. The single central wheel provides precise steering and a great feel under sail, while the wide transom platform makes access to the sea easy and adds valuable space for relaxation. The interior is surprisingly spacious and w...
