About this boat

The Bavaria 33 Cruiser, built in 2013, is a compact yet highly capable sailing yacht, perfectly suited for extended voyages with a couple or a small family or coastal cruising. Her previous owner used the yacht lightly, primarily as a floating weekend home, which has resulted in low engine hours and excellent condition overall. The current owner, a yachting enthusiast with experience in yacht construction and refits, has spent the last four years upgrading and optimizing the boat for long-term, self-sufficient sailing. Her deep keel gives her impressive stability under sail, and her thoughtfully designed layout offers comfort, practicality, and performance far beyond her size. In 2022, the yacht underwent a maj...
