About this boat

This Catalina 320 stands apart with an exceptional list of recent upgrades that eliminate the typical “to-do” list. These modernizations make the vessel purpose-built for reliable coastal cruising or extended liveaboard comfort. The cockpit is protected by a new enclosure, and upgrades bring true off-grid capability. Below deck, refreshed finishes and practical systems create a clean, functional, and inviting living space. Whether you’re stepping up or setting off, this is a true ready-to-sail cruiser.
