About this boat

The Catana42 has won the annual award for the best medium-sized catamaran sail (under 50 feet) with its superior performance and outstanding performance. This ship is very comfortable to drive, "said Ed Sherman." Among all the ships we tested, the Catana42 placed the helmsman in a more comfortable position, with the steering near the outer stern, an electric roof, and excellent panoramic views. All of these provide convenience for the helmsman. "Another judge, Tim Murphy, stated that Catana utilized advanced SCRIMP technology in shipbuilding, and their exploration and pursuit in reducing ship weight were reflected in both hull components and cabin furniture.
