About this boat

Miami offers an incredible way to see the city from the water, and this 105-foot yacht lets you do exactly that. The yacht has air conditioning, climate control, and private cabins with pillows and blankets, so longer outings stay comfortable. There's a shower, sink, stove, and toilets onboard, plus towels and sun protection for everyone. The interior spaces make this a good choice if you want to spend several hours or even a full day on the water rather than just a quick cruise. You can route through Star Island, Biscayne Bay, Key Biscayne, Downtown Miami, and the Brickell area. Many guests also head to the local sandbars to hang out in the water and enjoy the sun. The captain fee applies to a minimum of 4 hou...
