About this boat

The most memorable cruises are the ones taken slowly—where presence matters as much as destination. Aboard an elegant vessel designed with sustainability, comfort, and deep respect for nature, time seems to soften as the river carries you along. Light pours in, space invites you to breathe, and the gentle rhythm of the water sets the tone for a soothing, dream-like escape. Here on the Columbia River, in Portland, the Delphia 12 makes her debut—becoming the first of her kind ever to grace these magnificent waters. Purpose-built for river cruising, she offers an experience that feels both refined and adventurous, intimate yet expansive. Crafted in Poland, where some of the world's most luxurious yachts are born,...
