About this boat

The motorsailer Thalassa is a distinguished 36-meter luxury charter vessel, designed in the traditional Eastern Mediterranean style and celebrated for her graceful lines, masterful craftsmanship, and enduring maritime character. Originally launched as Bahriyeli A in Bozburun near Marmaris, Turkey—a region world-renowned for high-quality wooden yacht construction—she served as the model for three sister ships, one of which continues to operate successfully out of Kos today. Thalassa began her charter career in 2006, offering memorable cycling and sailing journeys through the Dodecanese Islands and along the full length of the Turkish coastline. After more than a decade of strong charter performance, she was tran...
