About this boat

The 1986 De Groot 35 is a classic Dutch steel motor cruiser that combines robust construction with the comforts of a true liveaboard vessel. Benefiting from an extensive refit carried out between 2021 and 2025, the boat has been thoughtfully upgraded to enhance both functionality and onboard living. The standout feature is the redesigned and enlarged galley, offering improved storage and a more practical layout for everyday use. With approximately 2 metres of headroom throughout, the interior feels open and comfortable, making extended stays on board a pleasure. Designed with versatility in mind, the accommodation includes a forward double V-berth, a spacious aft cabin with a large double bed and wardrobe, and...
