About this boat

- Please click the “message owner” button for quotes/food and bar options. This black-hulled, 105-foot sailing yacht is a tribute to the first Schooner America — winner of the first America’s Cup in 1851. An open deck features comfortable seating and bar service for up to 76. An open salon below features a full-service galley and two marine restrooms. Aboard the past meets the future both above deck and below deck. The aspect of the vessel refers to the modern and eco-friendly nature of both her cutting-edge construction materials and her propulsion system. In her ‘engine room’, there is a large battery bank system providing electric propulsion. Peel away her hull and rather than finding heavy fiberglass or ste...
