About this boat

Captain Information - Important Details We offer both "Captained" and "No Captain" charters, but a captain is required for all bookings. The captain's fee will not be charged when you reserve the boat and must be paid separately and directly to the captain. A "Captained" charter simply provides an estimated cost of what guests will pay the captain. A USCG-licensed captain is required – No exceptions. The captain's fee is NOT included in the Boatsetter price and must be paid separately and directly to the captain. Per USCG regulations, we cannot provide a captain. However, we will provide you with a vetted list of experienced captains who are familiar with our vessel. You are responsible for selecting and coor...
