About this boat

Luxury without emissions – Discover the electric sailboat revolution The Elan GT5 “Leap of Faith” represents the future of sailing – a perfect blend of performance, comfort, and sustainability. Designed by Rob Humphreys and crafted by Elan Yachts, this model combines cutting-edge innovation with the pure pleasure of silent sailing. Electric propulsion Equipped with twin Oceanvolt electric motors and saildrives featuring regenerating ServoProp propellers, this GT5 delivers a quiet, efficient, and eco-friendly experience. During sailing, the propellers regenerate power back to the batteries, extending your range and independence. The large battery capacity provides abundant energy for onboard systems, including i...
