About this boat

Niebla was conceived for an owner with an 18-metre mooring outside his home, who knew exactly what was needed to fill the space: a new, fin-keel-free, moderately displaced yacht with classic lines, easily handled by two to three people, simple to maintain, and offering maximum comfort within the elegant proportions of a long-ended design. Her design was inspired by the 1926 Alfred Mylne Bermudan cutter Chicane, widely regarded as a benchmark of classic functionality in a manageable size. Captivated by her timeless charm, the current owner has cherished Niebla for nearly twenty years, a true testament to the yacht's enduring appeal. Niebla has completed comfortable transatlantic crossings and explored both sides...
