About this boat

The Feeling 1090 (1987) is a solidly built, performance-oriented cruiser designed for sailors who value comfort and capability in equal measure. With a length of 11.10 meters and a beam of 3.56 meters, she offers excellent interior volume and stability under sail. Below deck, the layout includes two spacious cabins and one head, providing comfortable accommodation for extended cruising or liveaboard life. Her well-equipped galley, complete with a Plastimo gas oven, grill, and two-burner stove, makes onboard cooking convenient and enjoyable. Over the past few years, the boat has undergone an extensive refit with major upgrades focused on safety, energy independence, and sailing ease. Highlights include new riggi...
