About this boat

Well-maintained and extensively equipped bluewater cruiser with full documentation! The Forqus 35 is one of the most respected Swedish offshore sailing yachts – built to handle both coastal cruising and long ocean passages with the highest levels of safety and comfort. This example, built in 1977, is a fine representation of the renowned Orust quality that defines Swedish yacht building from this era. With her solid GRP hull construction, deep keel and well-balanced rig, she offers safe and stable sailing even in challenging conditions. The protected cockpit, generous freeboard and smart deck layout make life on board both secure and comfortable. With timeless lines, reliable sailing performance and numerous up...
