About this boat

The Gib'Sea 334 (1994) is a comfortable and versatile cruising sailboat built by Gibert Marine in France. Measuring around 10 meters (33 feet) in length, it offers a spacious and practical layout for family cruising. The design features a wide beam, stable hull, and easy handling under sail, making it suitable for both coastal and offshore trips. Inside, the Gib'Sea 334 provides 2–3 cabins, a functional galley, saloon area, and ample storage, reflecting Gibert Marine's focus on comfort and practicality.
