About this boat

Stylish steel motorboat with the typical rope - and bow fender. Thanks to the limited draft and low clearance, the inland sailing area is large. The open cockpit is covered with a lovely cockpit tent. In the cockpit there is a fixed bench with cushions and a separate cockpit table. The railing has been replaced by stainless steel railing on the fore and aft ship, with stainless steel stanchions and wire amidships. The steel deck fittings have also been replaced by stainless steel. There is a manual anchor winch on the foredeck. In 2018, all windows were fitted with new seals. The batteries are charged by the solar panel. The electric bow thruster, equipped with a separate battery and circuit breaker, assists wi...
