About this boat

[EN] The 2005 Grand Soleil 40 is one of the most well-rounded and highly regarded models in the cruiser-racer segment. This high-performance Italian sailboat was built by Cantiere del Pardo, with an exterior design by Matteo Polli and an interior design by Nauta Design / Patrick Roseo. Highly valued for its balance between comfortable cruising and excellent performance in racing or sporty sailing, it is a vessel renowned for its outstanding handling, structural integrity, and high-quality finishes. This particular 12-meter unit is equipped for both cruising and sporty sailing and racing, with a complete set of sails, excellent maintenance, and a recent refit of the electronics and engine, specifically the valve...
