About this boat

Cello the 3rd is our home every summer, and so do all our guests feel. The yacht is roomy and very stable in the water, she was refitted in 2015. The wooden classic design brings you to another era, at the beauty of the Greek island. we try to sail powered by the wind as much as the winds enable, as the experience of sailing with such a large vessel is unique. Once there is no wind, we use our motor, which is very quiet when you are on deck. Our crew is carefully selected, to assure the quality and readiness of all the services included are being provided at the top quality and on time. We are focused on boutique cruises which are built to fit the style of our guests and we are typically very flexible in our ro...
