About this boat

This yacht was built as a small copy of a large fishing cutter with the equipment every professional fisherman is familiar with and every sport fisherman can only dream of. The yacht was cherished by her first owner and brought him and his family tremendous joy together on the water. More than 50 years later, in 2017, her second and current owner decided to convert the forward hold into a salon with bedroom and bathroom. The yacht underwent a thorough refit and now has not only professional fishing equipment but also an interior with solid techniques so you can stay on board for a long time. The deck is equipped as a fishing cutter with two masts and sturdy arms for the nets. Her traditional colors attract a lo...
