About this boat

Streamlined profile, straight bow, typical set back superstructure and fully balanced volumes. A 499 GT coupé capable of satisfying the most demanding customer in terms of performance and elegance. Drawing inspiration from the world of jet design, the side arches, dear to the ISA Yachts style, have been revisited as well as the roll bars and the end of the hull towards the stern making them more tapered. The overall result is a general feeling of lightening accentuated by the wider windows and the more slender profile. The naval architecture is by the Palumbo Superyachts technical team, while the Venetian studio of Team for Design – Enrico Gobbi is responsible for the interior and exterior design.
