About this boat

Journey's End is a beautifully maintained 2011 Island Packet 370, a sailboat known for its incredible build quality, offshore capability, and unmistakable presence on the water. This is not just a boat, it is a passport to freedom and a proven bluewater cruiser ready to untie the lines and chase the horizon. Built with solid hand-laid fiberglass construction, a full keel with protected rudder, and a wide beam that delivers impressive stability and comfort, the Island Packet 370 has earned its reputation as one of the most capable and comfortable cruising sailboats in its class. Journey's End is truly turnkey and ready to go cruising, with systems sorted, rig dialed in, and every detail reflecting consistent car...
