About this boat

Sun Fast 3600 – 2015 (Launched 2016) This Sun Fast 3600 is configured as a genuine offshore racing yacht, not a standard production setup. Built in 2015 and launched in 2016, the boat combines infusion-moulded construction with a lightweight racing fit-out and carbon components throughout. The hull is paired with twin rudders and a lead keel, delivering high-speed control and predictable helm balance when pressed offshore or sailing deep angles. Steering is via twin carbon wheels, providing redundancy and weight reduction aft. The rig package is centred around a full carbon mast, significantly reducing weight aloft and improving righting moment and upwind efficiency. The sail inventory is complete and race-orie...
