About this boat

This robust steel motor cutter features a beautifully lined hull and wheelhouse. Aft of the wheelhouse is an open cockpit with bench seating. On the foredeck, a manual anchor winch is installed, along with a fender holder. The mooring bollards are of heavy-duty quality, and the wide side decks provide safe and easy access throughout the vessel. The current owner has recently carried out various upgrades, including renewal of electrical systems, navigation equipment and wiring. The deck has been sandblasted and finished with Flexiteek. New fuel tanks with inspection hatches have been installed, and the hull and superstructure have been professionally repainted. In addition, a new oak galley unit, doors and refri...
