About this boat

This stunning Lagoon 630MY power catamaran was built in 2018 and spent the first half of her life with very little private use in Florida, preserving her exceptional condition. Acquired by the current owner in November 2021 and relocated to the British Virgin Islands (BVI), she has been meticulously maintained by a dedicated full-time captain who treats her as his own, ensuring she looks and runs excellently. This galley-down, four-cabin owner's version maximizes luxury and space. The expansive starboard aft owner's cabin features a generous bathroom and a separate shower with direct cockpit access for seamless indoor-outdoor flow. The full galley in the port aft hull frees up the salon for lounging and enterta...
