About this boat

Step aboard Electra, a classic Hallberg-Rassy, built in Sweden and renowned worldwide for their unmatched combination of comfort, strength, and offshore capability. Hallberg-Rassy yachts are prized by sailors for their seaworthiness and Scandinavian craftsmanship—qualities that make Electra as capable today as she was during her famous voyages. This vessel is more than just a fine example of Swedish yachtbuilding—she is the very same yacht once known as Mahina Tiare II, the Hallberg-Rassy 42 personally owned and operated by renowned sailor and author John Neal. From 1990 to 1996, Neal sailed her more than 70,000 miles as a professional sail-training vessel, leading expeditions across the South Pacific, Patagoni...
