About this boat

This graceful 46-metre two masted wooden sailing yacht was built in traditional style reminiscent of the legendary Bugis seafarers that ruled Indonesia's waves back in the 17th century. She sails throughout Indonesia with a focus on the magical Komodo National Park and the 1,500 islands of Raja Ampat, and also offers longer routes through Ambon and the Banda Islands, a collection of pristine isles known as the original Spice Islands. This yacht is a wonderful choice for guests seeking a leisurely cruise around these Indonesia, with 16 crew including a spa therapist, a private chef, a cruise director and a dive guide.
