About this boat

The boat is a very capable Swedish build from 1986, she has a long encapsulated fin keel and skeg mounted rudder. These boats are famous for being built to a very high quality standard. The deck and hull construction in balsa cored, 2skin grp. Nearly all of the teak deck has now been removed, with only the section around the cockpit remaining. As for the interior, it is finished in mahogany. The boat went through an interior refitted in 2021 where a new water tank, diesel tank, plumbing, water heater, and engine were installed. The boat was also insulated, electric heating was installed, and a diesel burner added also. Therefore, it is not a standard, but the main structure remains. The engine and saildrive wer...
