About this boat

The Moody 33 MK1 is one of the most successful British cruising yachts of her era, combining classic lines, dependable construction, and excellent sea-keeping qualities. Designed by the renowned Angus Primrose, this 1977 example offers a comfortable and capable platform for coastal cruising, extended holidays, or adventurous offshore passages. Below deck, the yacht offers surprisingly generous accommodation for a vessel of this size, with comfortable sleeping arrangements for up to six people, a well-equipped galley, hot and cold pressurised water, and a separate shower compartment. The interior retains the warm and welcoming atmosphere for which classic Moodys are well known. Power is provided by a reliable 23...
