About this boat

1986 Moody 376 is a proven offshore cruiser, combining classic design with practical upgrades for modern sailing. Built with a solid fiberglass hull, fin keel, and spade rudder, she offers reliable performance and easy handling under both sail and power. The masthead sloop rig with an Isomat mast and double spreaders provides a balanced sail plan, while her spacious layout comfortably accommodates up to seven people, making her ideal for family cruising or extended voyages. Over the past few years, the yacht has benefited from significant technical investment and careful ownership. The Thornycroft T80 diesel engine (35 hp) has undergone extensive servicing in 2022 and 2026, ensuring dependable and efficient ope...
