About this boat

The sailing yacht Nababbo is a Vallicelli 65 (20 meters). It was built in carbon to participate to the most important sailing races of the IMS period. She was designed by the famous architect Andrea Vallicelli. In her regattas in the world, she won many victories, the most famous are: San Pellegrino Trophy (New York 1992), Transat des Alizee 1995 and Giraglia Rolex Cup. In 2018 Nababbo had an important refit for a better internal and external comfort on a cruise. However, the boat has not lost its speed and maneuverability, maintaining performance that only a boat born to run can have. This sailing yacht can accommodate up to 12 guests and 2 crew members for daily and evening trips, 8 guests and 2 crew members...
