About this boat

Get a taste of life on the High Seas sailing in the cerulean waters at Catalina Island aboard a small tall ship! Enjoy the beauty of Catalina's scenic coastline from aboard Mayflower's spacious deck, with her captain and crew acting as your private guides. You can feel free to sit back and enjoy the sail or learn about traditional sailing and the island's history from the captain and crew. What To Expect Onboard: Mayflower is a 1960 Square-Topsail Ketch designed by Hugh Angelman and built by the American Marine shipyard almost entirely out of teak, in a design that harkens back to the 1700s. She flies up to seven sails at a time inducing the gaff main and mizzen, stay sail, jib, flying jib, square topsail, and...
