About this boat

Deck Layout The deck of this Pogo 12.50 is clean, open and designed for efficient offshore sailing with all control lines led to the cockpit. A single carbon tiller provides direct steering feel. Winches and clutches are positioned within easy reach for shorthanded operation. The large cockpit features coamings and built-in seating with backrests and an unobstructed deck plan for sail handling. A wide open aft platform offers excellent access to the water and dinghy stowage. The Pogo 12.50's wide beam and form-stability hull shape support powerful sail plans without compromising safety. The lifting keel system allows draft reduction for shallow waters while maintaining high performance offshore. Interior Below,...
