About this boat

If you are on holiday in Portugal, and would like to visit its capital city from a unique and different point of view than usual, then our private sailing boat trip from Lisbon to Cascais is just the thing for you. You will spend a relaxing day on a boat at your complete disposal, and you may even decide to do a swimming stop while sailing along the Tagus River. Leaving the port of Belém, our journey along the west coast will begin. Our experienced skipper will be ready to give you advice on a possible itinerary to follow, with some of the must-see sights. During the navigation, you will be provided with an e-book where you will find the history and information regarding the city's most celebrated attractions,...
