About this boat

Join me for a relaxed evening on the water as we cruise through St. Augustine's waterways. I'll share local history and point out spots you won't find in guidebooks plus there's a good chance we'll see dolphins, sea turtles, manatees, and other wildlife swimming alongside the boat. Depending on the tide, we can stop at a shallow sandbar where you can wade around and cool off before watching the sun set behind the city's historic skyline. The party barge handles up to ten guests comfortably, with plenty of shade and room to move around. I provide a cooler you can bring ice and any food or drinks you would like. The boat has a wheelchair-accessible ramp at the dock. Kids and adults alike enjoy the water mat a...
