About this boat

This 43ft Lagoon catamaran is a great choice for private excursions around Puerto Vallarta, especially for groups that want a more social and relaxed day on the water. Its layout is spacious and comfortable, making it a strong fit for sightseeing, swimming stops, celebrations, and full-day coastal outings with family or friends. One of the main advantages of this catamaran is its size and maneuverability. The public listing describes it as a mid-size vessel that can reach coves and beach areas that may feel less practical for larger catamarans, which helps create a more private and flexible experience around the bay. Depending on the route and trip length, your outing can include places such as Islas Marietas,...
