About this boat

Dragonfly DF 25 Touring 2023. Hull no 95. Mylor Yacht Harbour UK VAT-paid Fast and fun (and remarkably dry) day sailer / weekender, that is also capable of much longer trips. There is room for friends and family, but it is also very easy to rig and sail single-handed, with a self-tacking jib and furling gennaker. The boat is in superb condition. It is kept ashore for 6 months every year, when the sails are professionally checked and laundered, the engine is serviced, the hulls are waxed and polished, and the halyards and folding lines are checked and shortened. The current waiting list for a new one is stretching into 2028, so this is a great opportunity to buy one that really does look like new, at a good disc...
