About this boat

S/Y Sassan – 6 Metre R Yacht (1914) A beautifully restored classic with a remarkable racing and family history. S/Y Sassan is a 6 Metre R Yacht built in 1914 at Neglinge shipyard in Stockholm, based on designs by Axel Nygren and commissioned by Gustaf Cedergren. She was selected to represent Sweden in the One Ton Cup in England the same year, a campaign ultimately interrupted by the outbreak of war. One of a series of three sister yachts, Sassan stands out as one of the earliest Swedish yachts built with a Bermuda rig. She was later sailed extensively by the renowned yachtsman John “Glas Kalle” Carlsson. After decades of varied ownership, including periods of decline, Sassan underwent a dedicated and extensive...
