About this boat

We are Elena and Massimo, partners in life and at sea. For over two years we have been living aboard Fabiola II, a 14-meter Beneteau Oceanis 473 Clipper that has become our home, our project, and our way of experiencing the sea every single day. Elena is a geologist with a deep connection to the marine environment; Massimo works in the technology field and has always considered the sea his true anchor point. At a certain moment, we chose to simplify our lives, leave our house on land, and move onto the boat, turning a passion into a lifestyle. We are not an agency, and we do not offer “standard” holidays. With us, you truly sail: we follow the wind, anchor in secluded bays whenever possible, and experience the...
